

The Peace and Development Institute of Sri Lanka invites YOUTH aged 19 - 29
to a five-day interactive learning / skillbuilding experience on Youth Leadership for Peacebuilding and Advocacy from 23 to 28 May 2011 at Anuradhapura, Sri Lanka.

Viewing Youth as Agents of Change

through

Keen Visions

Creative Thinking

Innovative Programming

Proactive Communication

Synergetic Networking

this training program is designed to direct the young participants on a journey of

- Self-reflective exercises manifesting leadership qualities and capacities
- in-depth reflection upon their (mandated) roles as youth in creating and managing social changes,
- developing leadership skills through interactive spaces
- employing tools for conflict mapping and conflict analysis
- applying methodologies for establishing peace constituencies
- utilizing blueprints for disseminating peace dividends
- exercising communication skills promoting a culture of peace
- engaging techniques influencing policy changes

Course fees and Applications:

International organizations and institutions: 375 US$

National organizations and institutions: 185 US$

Special discount for organizations sending more than two participants

Application deadline - 5 May 2011

To apply online please go to www.pdisl.org or email frances@pdisl.org